

SEARCHING FOR LOCAL SOLUTIONS TO IMPROVE MATERNAL & CHILD HEALTH

Now more than ever, new and better solutions are required to improve healthcare for mothers, women and children. We believe that across Malawi there are already many existing solutions that are making a difference!

Have you developed and implemented a project, programme or service that has made healthcare better for mothers, women and children?

TELL US ABOUT IT! WE ARE SEARCHING FOR INNOVATIVE SOLUTIONS THAT CAN HELP TO KEEP OUR WOMEN, MOTHERS AND CHILDREN HEALTHY!

The University of Malawi is working with the Malawian Ministry of Health and the Special Programme of Research and Training of Tropical Disease at the World Health Organization to find, study and recognise the best solutions in Malawi.

- Having your solution studied so that it can be shared across Malawi and with other countries
- Being introduced to other health innovators in Malawi

SHARE YOUR SOLUTION AND BENEFIT BY:

- Receiving a recognition-award from the University of Malawi and the Malawian Ministry of Health
- Being featured in a TDR/WHO film on social innovation in health
- Standing a chance to win a prize worth $1500 from a South African communications agency who help you to better share your work with others
